

Parent Involvement Outline

FY:2023-24

Please list plan/activities with a brief explanation below.

*Please note, if these change during the school year, you will need to update this sheet.

1. Explanation:

Kindergarten Open House	All the kindergarten teachers shared how they start the day, bus riding information, all supplies needed, restroom habits, breakfast and lunch, special classes, take home folders, dismissal routines, curriculum, and class lists.

Grand Parents' Day	Students will enjoy spending time with their grandparents as the students show how they are growing as a reader by reading to their grandparents during this activity at school. Teachers will also present some questioning techniques that grandparents can use when reading with their grandchild at home.

3.

The Columbus Zoo	Provide our students with information about their habitats. This included non-fiction text with Q & A for families to support students' comprehension and vocabulary development.

Reader's Theater	The first grade and second grade classes practiced reading from their Reader's Theatre scripts in the classroom. Parents were given info on how to help their student at home prepare for the presentation. Parents were also invited to come in and watch the performance.
